Call to Ministry (max. 2000 characters)

I had an amazing youth group experience growing up. I formed very close friendships that enabled me, a girl who was far too homesick to even spend the night at a friend's house, to overcome my fear and go on mission trips and to youth conferences. My youth directors and advisors showed me that they genuinely loved me and cared about what was going on in my life. They seemed like the coolest people in the world to me and it meant so much to me that they loved ME, as I flew under the radar at school and was never close to teachers or other adults I wasn't related to before. They showed me what I wanted to become - a "cool" young adult who loves God with a passion and who loves, guides, and cares for the next generation of God-loving youth. So ever since I was a youth myself, I have felt called to youth ministry. I know how big an impact youth groups and caring Christian role models can have in a young person's life and I want to give that to other youth.
