

United Campus Ministry at the University of Arkansas (UCM at the U of A) Campus Minister – Director of Campus Ministry

United Campus Ministry at the University of Arkansas is seeking a Campus Minister. This position is about engaging, equipping and empowering students as they grow in faith and move into the world as leaders for the church and the world.

Skills Needed: This position leads UCM by engaging, motivating, and advising the organization and the people needed to support it with their time, money, and talents.

Candidates should:

- Have a high level of operational management skill coupled with a servant's heart.
- Have the ability to build and nurture relationships with area churches, the University of Arkansas, and its students, faculty and staff.
- Be comfortable and proactive in executive-level fundraising that clearly maintains the ministry, while also growing it.
- Have skills that develop, maintain and implement programming and skills to provide pastoral care to students.
- Have an understanding of and empathy for the particular challenges, both positive and negative, of young adults in college.
- Have business administration skills and experience, as well as facilities management skills will be required, as such experience is used daily.

The vision of UCM is to create an open space for students, faculty, and staff to come and grow in their faith. The people make the UCM ministry vision come alive. It is lived out through the focus on foundational fellowship through programming like Monday Lunch and Dinner & Discussion Nights. It is further lived out daily through the vision of the board and attention to the goals of the students coming together to form meaningful faith-building experiences that center around the pillars of Fellowship, Leadership Development, Service, and Worship.

Audience: Approximately 100 unique students per semester.
