

Seeking: Full Time Children's Director

Brentwood Presbyterian Church, a warm and vibrant, inclusive and welcoming, Christ-centered and mission-minded, 500-member, church in the heart of Los Angeles' Westside (strategically tucked beneath the Santa Monica Mountains, between UCLA and the Santa Monica Pier in the shadow of the Getty Museum) is in search of an exceptional individual with a mature faith to lead our very active ministry to children and their families. The successful candidate will be a proven children's ministry team leader, with excellent interpersonal and formal communication skills, natural organizational abilities, and an obvious heart for, and rapport with, children and their parents. A foundational commitment to family-based, relational ministry and a demonstrated ability to recruit, train, manage and inspire teachers, parents and volunteer teams is paramount. We believe this person could be either a trained, career, children's ministry professional or a lay person with a deep faith, centrist theology, and a heart and passion for children's ministry. Competitive salary and benefits provided. Consider joining our creative and collegial ministry team and see why we are referred to as "The Warm Heart of the Westside". Please email a resume and cover letter to info@bpcusa.org. (with "Children's Director" in the subject line.) For more info on our church visit: www.bpcusa.org
